

Q&A summary

OPEN CALL

QUESTION

1

Do I need to be an architect to be able to apply?

No, everyone who wishes to respond to the question and to share opinions, ideas, or experiences can apply.

QUESTION

2

Can I submit more than one image?

Yes, if you find it crucial for your submission, it will be reviewed within the availability of space in the publication.

QUESTION

3

Can you submit in a different language?

Yes, you may submit in another language along with an English translation.

QUESTION

4

What to expect after the abstract submission? Is there feedback?

If your abstract is selected, you will be connected to an editor who will get in touch with you to support you in the process.

QUESTION 5

Can visual contributions go through a peer-reviewed assessment? Do I need to submit e.g. a diagram of the methodology, of the results, or any kind of data?

We are still finalizing the details for how to conduct a peer-reviewed assessment of visual contributions.

Do please let us know if you would like to have peer-review.

QUESTION

6

Is it possible to submit several proposals?

Yes, there is no limit for how many proposals you can submit.

QUESTION

7

What does 'impression of the format' in your description of the submission formats mean?

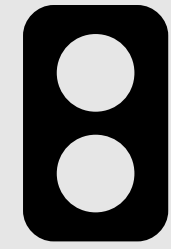

A description of your intention for the final submission e.g., will it be a text, have diagrams, etc.? It will help us in terms of the layout and narrative of the publication.

QUESTION

What is the process for peer-review?

We wish to avoid biases and blind spots in the peer-review process.

This is also why we ask whether you want a peer-review assessment already now, so that we can start finding the right peer reviewers as early as possible.

If you have any concerns or suggestions regarding this, please get in touch.

QUESTION 9

For an interview or dialogue submission, do I need to have a fully established collaboration or is it okay to have this as a suggestion?

You may provide a description of the dialogue you intend to have and state an alternative plan if the interview is not confirmed.

QUESTION 10

What format will the publication have?

The format will follow our first publication in size and have some of the same design elements such as the open spine.